How to read this report

The score is a summary of the checks that bear on living here and on resale: schools, crime against the wider area, price direction, flood and other risks, energy. It is not a valuation and not a survey. Every figure below names the body that published it and the period it covers. Where a source holds nothing for this address, that is written down rather than left blank, because a blank reads as "fine" and it is not.

The checks are grouped into ten parts. Part 1 answers every check on one page; the parts after it carry the detail a solicitor, surveyor, lender or the buyer will want to see.

Questions to ask

Written from this report's own findings, for the people who can answer them.

Ask the seller

- Have you ever complained about noise, or has any neighbour complained about you?

Modelled noise up to 72 dB(A). Noise complaints must be declared on the TA6 form. Visit at rush hour and late evening before deciding.

- Why are you selling, how long has it been on the market, and what exactly is included in the sale?

Every purchase. The answers shape your negotiating position more than any survey. Fixtures and fittings go on the TA10 form, hold them to it.

For your solicitor

- Confirm the tenure. If leasehold: years remaining, ground rent terms, service charge history and any planned major works.

Every purchase. A lease under about 80 years or a doubling ground rent can cost tens of thousands to fix and some lenders refuse them.

- Check the title plan boundaries match what you saw, and who owns and maintains each fence, wall, and any shared access.

Every purchase. Boundary surprises are the most common post-completion dispute, and they are nearly free to catch before exchange.

The score

The score out of 100 starts from the checks that most affect living here and resale: the share of nearby schools rated Good or Outstanding, crime against the wider district, the direction of area prices, the property's energy band, and each mapped risk (flood, surface water, radon, subsidence, noise, air, contamination, planning constraints). Strengths add, concerns subtract, and anything a source could not answer leaves the score untouched rather than counting for or against. It is a summary for comparing addresses, not a valuation and not a survey.

What this report is not

It is not a RICS survey, a solicitor's searches, a mortgage valuation or advice. Sources publish on their own cycles, from monthly (prices, crime) to a decade (the Census); each figure carries its period. All data is used under the Open Government Licence v3.0 and the licences of OpenStreetMap contributors. Generated 8 September 2026 by UKPropertyInsight, ukpropertyinsight.co.uk.
